

Review—What is the Purpose of the Church—Biblical Fellowship— Christ-like Church

Review — Christ-like Church

FILL IN THE BLANK

1. To be genuinely Christian, the church must be centered on _____ rather than defined by rigid boundaries or organizational structures.
2. The church is defined by its _____ to its Lord, not by what it possesses or who it formally includes.

Review — Christ-like Church (cont.)

FILL IN THE BLANK

3. The binding force holding members together is _____, expressed as self-giving commitment.
4. Christ-likeness includes rejecting violence, relinquishing power, pursuing _____, cultivating community, and imitating Christ's _____ nature.

Review — Christ-like Church (cont.)

FILL IN THE BLANK

5. The church is called to be "_____ people," demonstrating peace instead of violence and justice instead of abuse.
6. The core of the church's mission is simply being _____.

Review — Biblical Fellowship

FILL IN THE BLANK

1. The Greek term _____ derives from koinos, meaning "_____."
2. Fellowship originates with God; that vertical connection enables horizontal fellowship — contingent upon walking in the _____ (1 John 1:3–7).

Review — Biblical Fellowship (cont.)

FILL IN THE BLANK

3. Koinonia carries two meanings: sharing _____ through joint participation, and sharing _____ by giving what we possess.
4. Genuine fellowship cannot exist with _____, whose nature differs fundamentally.

Review — Biblical Fellowship (cont.)

FILL IN THE BLANK

5. Believers form one body in Christ through the _____ — not through familial ties (Romans 12:4–5).
6. The Lord's Supper is not mere historical remembrance but real _____ with the exalted Christ.